COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Plans are currently being made to start the State Aid construction next Monday on East Bethel road.

Mr. Landers and Mr. Douglas from the Highway Commission Division Office in Rumford were in town on Tuesday and visited the site of the proposed project with several of the municipal officers and road foreman.

There is $7,440.00 available for this work. One large item of cost are two culverts. One culvert is 78 feet by 48 inches and the other 50 feet by 18 inches, both paved and cost $1,300.10. Therefore there will be a little over $6,000 for excavation, fill, base and surfacing.

A penetration coat of 6,300 gallons of MGS asphalt has been applied to that part of the Northwest Bethel road that was recently rebuilt. Provisions should be made in the budget for next year to have funds available to apply at least one inch mulch over the penetration coat.

The initial response on payment of taxes since the mailing of the tax bills has been satisfactory. Enough funds have been received to avoid making further tax anticipation loans.

On Thursday of this week the State Tax Assessor will be at the Municipal Building in Rumford. Assessors in the Rumford area are required to bring the valuation book for inspection by the State Assessor. This provides an opportunity for Assessors to ask questions. Bethel will be represented at this meeting by John Carter and Harold Bennett.

Sincerely,
Harold L. Bean

DR. HUBBARD HONOURED AT WATERFORD SATURDAY EVE

Dr. Roswell E. Hubbard, who has been a practicing physician at Waterford since 1912, was honor guest at a gathering of the people of Waterford, Stoneham, Albany and Lovell at the Waterford Memorial School Saturday evening.

The program, in the style of This Is Your Life, was a surprise to the doctor.

Dr. Wilbur I. Bull, formerly of the United States Navy, now of Hanover, N. H., acted as master of ceremonies welcoming Dr. Hubbard and Mrs. Hubbard and introducing the speakers, who were Mrs. Walter W. Filibrown Sr., Waterford; Mrs. Will Ray, North Waterford; Mrs. Harlan Bumpus, Albany; Walter Filibrown Jr., South Portland; Mrs. Helen Grover, East Stoneham; Mrs. Harold Gray, Center Lovell; Charles Hamilton, Waterford; who represented the Campers; Dr. Delbert Stewart, South Paris; Dr. Eugene Drake, Portland; Dr. Chester Nelson and Dr. George Miller, Norway. Many humorous as well as serious anecdotes were brought forth. All the Hubbard family were present except their eldest son, Dr. John Hubbard of Matoon, Ill. Mrs. Hubbard and four children were present. Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Hubbard Jr., son and daughter of Framingham, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. John Flynn and two sons of Brewster; and Miss Jean Hubbard of Waterford.

Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard came to Waterford in August, 1912 shortly after he left the Navy, where they have lived since and he has been the most loved and respected "Country Doctor" of Waterford and the surrounding towns as was testified in the nearly 500 people present to honor him.

It was interesting to note that James Tyler was present who was the doctor's first baby in town, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gray, the last baby delivered by him.

Guests were present from Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Georgia, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, Ohio, Vermont, New Brunswick, South Paris, West Paris, Bridgton, Harrison, Lovell, Stoneham, and Albany. In behalf of these many friends Mrs. Walter Filibrown presented Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard with a set of luggage and a purse.

Registration in the girls dormitory will follow the morning workout.

Could Academy will serve a buffet dinner at 1 p. m. $1.25 per plate. In the dining room of Gehring Hall. Reservations should be made this week to be sure of a ticket. Send a card or telephone to either of the Alumni Secretaries.

The "old timers," classes of 1910-1922 and the group including 1912 through 1915 will hold their annual reunion meetings during the afternoon.

Could Academy will hold a reunion of former students of Gould Academy, all classes from 1890 to 1958, will be held in Bethel on Sunday, August 24, 1958. It is hoped that many people will come back to renew old friendships and that the get-together may be popular enough to become an annual event.

The exercises will open with a baccalaureate service in the West Parish Church at 11 a. m. The speaker will be Dr. Joseph E. LeMaster, former professor at Bates College, and now pastor of three churches in his home town of Monmouth. He will be assisted by Rev. Richard Hamilton, pastor of the Methodist Church, Bethel. This will also be a union service for the two Bethel churches and all those who are interested in the school and in the town are cordially invited to attend.

Frank Flint, 1954, recently graduated with honor from Oberlin College, will be guest organist and choir director. He will give a concert of organ music from 10:30 to 11 a. m. A choir of sixteen mixed voices will assist in the service.

Registration in the girls dormitory will follow the morning workout.

TODAY'S meditation

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Thursday, August 14

Read John 10:1-8

A willinger will they not follow, but a steeper from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. (John 10:5)

IN Palestine a guide told our family an unforgettable fact. He said that if a sheep is lost the owner will go to a neighboring shepherd, asking him if he has a sheep not of his flock. The other shepherd answers, "I don't know, but I'll see." He leaps upon a rock and gives his call. His own sheep lift their heads, but one goes on grazing.

Then the other shepherd leaps upon the same rock and gives the call. This time, the flock of sheep goes on grazing, but one sheep lifts its head. "That is my sheep," he says. He takes his sheep and goes home rejoicing.

Sheep know their own shepherd's voice and respond by following.

In this regard do they not put us human beings to shame? We hear the voices of business, social life, luxury, radio or television—yes, even the humdrum tasks of every day. Above all, let us listen for and heed the voice of the great Shepherd, who calls us, His sheep, to follow Him.

PRAYER: Our Father, in this world where there are so many voices calling, help us to keep our hearts open and attuned to Thy still, small voice. May we remember to seek first Thy kingdom and Thy righteousness. In Christ's name. Amen.

Thought for the Day

"The sheep follow him: for they know his voice."

LOCKE MILLS

Mrs. Florence Swift, Corres. —

Miss Judy Andrews is recovering from the old fashioned measles. The Union Church and the Locke Mills Community Club are having a public baked bean supper in the Town Hall Saturday, Aug. 16, at 6 p. m.

Harry Swift and Herbert Mason were in Norway on legal business recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swift of Locke Mills were honored Sunday by a surprise reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Farnum, Bryant Pond, a sister of Mrs. Swift, the occasion being their 45th wedding anniversary. The affair was planned by the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Swift, Mrs. George Stowell, Jr., West Bethel, Mrs. Henry Bowers, Locke Mills and Mrs. George Biden, Dixfield. A son, Rodney Swift, Hawthorne, N. Y., was unable to be present, however he telephoned his congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Swift (Florence Littlefield) were married at Bethel, August 9, 1913, by the Rev. Trelawney C. Chapman, Jr. The refreshment table was decorated with a beautiful bouquet of flowers from the Order of the Eastern Star, the flowers being in the colors of the star points. Two wedding cakes were also used as decorations, one being presented by Mrs. Addelynn Mann, the other made by Mrs. Ellsworth Hathaway. A corsage for the bride was presented by Mrs. Grace Coburn, Bethel, and a boutonniere for the groom was also given by Mrs. Coburn. The couple had received two wedding cakes at a party Saturday evening. Mrs. Abbie Valley giving one and Mrs. Marion Hall the other. Many beautiful gifts were received also a large sum of money from their many friends.

Guests present were: Mrs. Harlan Andrews, West Paris; George P. Stowell 3d, Rosemary Stowell, West Bethel; Joyce M. Branton, Dalton, Mass.; Mrs. Agnes L. Case, Pennington, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. George Biden, Jeffrey and Claudia, West Paris; Mrs. Marie Lang, Mrs.

Emily Thurston, Miss Ivy Thurston, Miss Sadie Bailey, all of Andover; Elmer and Patricia Bennett, Bethel; Sandra Bennett, Orono; Mrs. Amy Farris, West Sumner; Sidney Littlefield, North Abington, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Eben Rand, Bronxville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hawkins, West Paris; tend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hathaway, Abington, Mass.; Mrs. Fannie Cummings (mother of Mrs. Swift), Bryant Pond; Mr. and Mrs. Orrell Anderson, Bethel; Roy O. Millett, of West Paris.

Many cards and gifts were received from friends unable to attend.
